BARBARA JO DAVIDSON RUSSELL

Barbara Jo Davidson Russell was a two-time All-State forward for the Lady Warriors basketball team during the 1952-53 and 1953-54 seasons. She was known for her "mean hook shot." Under the direction of Coach Clayton Blount, as team captain her sophomore year she led East Central to a second place finish in the state finals. She had much success as an individual point maker dropping in over 40 points in two different games. She played as a four-year letter-winner for the Union High School Lady Yellow Jackets. During her senior season, she helped lead Union to a regional tournament title over Newton, dropping in 42 of Union's 50 points. She was inducted into the ECCC Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

BILLY WAYNE BAUCUM

Following an outstanding athletic career at Newton High School, Billy Wayne Baucum signed a football scholarship with the University of Southern Mississippi, but chose instead to play football at East Central. He was a two-year starter as a halfback and defensive back and was named Team Captain for the 1960 squad. During his sophomore year, he was named Outstanding Back and Mr. ECJC. That year, Baucum rushed for 750 yards on 153 carries, had 18 pass receptions for 240 yards and made 92 tackles. Baucum was selected to the All-State and All-American football teams and played in the Junior College All-American Game. Baucum served the college as an assistant football coach from 1967-1970 and also served on the ECJC Board of Trustees from 1982 until his death in 1983. Baucum was inducted into the ECCC Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987.

W. ARNO VINCENT

After coming to East Central Junior College on a basketball scholarship in 1935, W. Arno Vincent was encouraged to try football, after never having seen a game. Playing guard for the Warriors for the 1936 and 1937 teams, he became an All-State athlete in both football and basketball. Following his playing career at East Central, Vincent was selected the college's Most Outstanding Male Athlete, and went on to Mississippi Southern College on a football scholarship. In 1939, Vincent was named to East Central Community College's Athletic Hall of Fame, and in 2007, he was inducted into the Mississippi Community College Sports Hall of Fame. Vincent served as the college's third president from 1953-1962, and also served as dean of students, registrar, and football and baseball coach.
